

Clintonville Rocks: Painted Rock Hunt!

Get Creative & Have Fun! Join our community rock painting program and find hidden rocks around Clintonville parks and public spaces!

How to Participate:

1. Paint rocks at home with fun designs, uplifting messages, or colorful patterns.
2. Hide rocks in safe, public areas (parks, trails, playgrounds).
3. Search for hidden rocks and post a photo in the Clintonville Wi Rocks Facebook group, bring in a photo (can be digital) to Small Town Outlet (30 10th Street, Clintonville) from 9am-5pm Wednesday-Fridays and 10am-2pm Saturdays, or email it to Parks & Rec at MHerter@ClintonvilleWI.gov.
4. Remember to re-hide the rock!

Competition: Most Rocks Found

- Dates: September 1, 2025- September 30th, 2025
- Participants earn 1 point per unique rock found and documented.
- Rocks must be re-hidden to count.
- Children under 12 must be supervised.

Prizes:

- Kid Category: Binoculars (first five kids to turn in photo submission of 3 hidden rocks)
- Grand Prize Category: Local Restaurant Gift Certificate for Two Angels

Rules:

- Only place rocks in safe, public locations.
- Do not place rocks on private property or near roadways.
- Photos must include the date, location, and participant name.
- Cheating or unsafe hiding will result in disqualification.

Safety Tips:

- Be mindful of surroundings.
- Respect nature and others' property.
- Avoid rocks that are too small or could be a tripping hazard.

Engage With the Community:

- Share your finds and creative designs to inspire others!

Questions? Contact: Clintonville Parks & Recreation 715-823-7668 or MHerter@ClintonvilleWI.gov
Let's make Clintonville rocks with creativity and community spirit!

Brought to you by the Clintonville Parks & Recreation Division, the Clintonville Public Library, & folks from Small Town Outlet.